

INDY PARKS' SUMMER DAY CAMP OFFERINGS ABOUND!

Sign up for fun all summer long at one of our many park locations

INDIANAPOLIS – Making plans for this summer? The summer day camps offered by Indy Parks and Recreation have spaces available at most locations for youth who are ready to have fun! The summer camp program offers activities ranging from swimming and arts and nature programs to science programs and sports and recreation. All camps follow a high program standard and are accredited by the American Camp Association (ACA). The Free Summer Lunch Program is available at selected sites.

Indy Parks offers a broad variety of day camps for all ages and interests in the areas of environmental education, creative arts, therapeutic recreation and traditional camps with fun weekly themes. The 2011 Summer Day Camps Guide is available at www.indyparks.org. Get this summer's camp schedules and offerings, and live out your summer camp adventures with Indy Parks fun, professional day camp staff. To register, call 327-PARK (327-7275) or call the park of your choosing directly.
